Q: Is the advertising offered for free?

A: Yes.

When we first started in 2005, we didnt have any advertising, the service was a bare basic dailypay service only, since then we have added many new features and put alot of hard work and effort into advertising. In those 15+ years we have never raised our rates once. The members only pay for the core functions of the service, everything else is a free add-on.
